

FOR THE GROOM

THE GROOMS TOAST

www.TheManRegistry.com

FOR STARTERS

Determine what day is more appropriate to give your toast (rehearsal or reception)

Throughout the engagement write down stories, characteristics, and qualities about your fiance

Humor - Since you're the Groom you need to keep it semi-responsible. Make sure your toast addresses the important aspects of throwing-in-the-towel

Have the toast written or outlined about 1 week before the toast is to be given. Practice, Practice, Practice

INTRODUCTION

Thank everybody for taking part in this occasion. There are people that have come from near and far and they all deserve a little appreciation

Thank the entire Wedding Party for all of their efforts

Thank and Recognize both sets of parents for their support and efforts (or the appropriate family members) and for the Rehearsal Dinner, Wedding Ceremony and the Wedding Reception

Thank all siblings (on both sides) for their efforts / support

MAIN TOPIC - YOUR BRIDE

Let's face it: You wouldn't be standing there if it wasn't for your Bride-to-be. She accepted your flaws (the few that you have) and it's time you tell her your true inner-sissy feelings

Suck up!

Suck up!

Suck up!

Tell your Bride-to-be that you Love her and that you can't wait to start the next chapter of your life with her

MOST IMPORTANT:

Enjoy Every Minute!
